Luxury Lodging Company Announces “Super Bowl on the Slopes”

Package includes ski tickets, catered Super Bowl party

Park City, Utah – December 15, 2011 – Resorts West®, a vacation rental manager based in Park City, Utah, today announced a lodging package for football fans who seek a unique way to celebrate Super Bowl XLVI. Guests who stay at a Resorts West private ski home during Super Bowl 2012 can watch the game in a private theater with stadium seating or on flat-screen TVs while enjoying the Greatest Snow on Earth™ at one of Park City’s three world-class resorts, including Deer Valley Resort, Park City Mountain Resort and Canyons Resort.

The “Super Bowl on the Slopes” package includes accommodations at a luxury ski home or lodge condo, up to eight two-day lift tickets to any of Park City’s three ski resorts, and a catered private Game Day party for up to eight people, featuring classic Super Bowl fare, local brews by Wasatch Beers and spirits from Utah’s High West Distillery. All attendees at the private event must be over the age of 21. All Resorts West reservations include a Private Concierge who can arrange ski and snowboard rentals, lift tickets, ground transfers and even grocery stocking service. Common home amenities include private outdoor hot tubs, pool tables, wet bars and ski-in/ski-out access.

This package starts at $788 per person plus taxes and fees, based on eight guests at a 4-bedroom townhome for three nights with two days of skiing or snowboarding and a catered Super Bowl party. Rates vary based on property size and number of guests. Restrictions may apply. Guests can call 1-877-773-1117 or e-mail reservations@resortswest.com for details.
